

St. John Vianney Family to Family Program Santisimo Sacramento Piura, Peru

Peru Family to Family Program

St. John Vianney Parish began a sister parish relationship with Santisimo Sacramento in Piura, Peru in May 2013. Fr. Joe Uhen, a former Brookfield resident, is the pastor at Parroquia Santisimo Sacramento, serving 40,000 faithful in Piura and the surrounding villages.

Currently, over 1,400 Peruvian families are participating in this program, most of whom live in bamboo houses with dirt floors, and many without running water or electricity. When a father or mother goes out in the morning to look for work for the day, they are successful if they bring home a salary of $3-$5 per day. This meager salary is enough to feed a family for part of the month but does not cover all their needs.

This is where the Family to Family Program helps.

By sponsoring a family for $25 per month or $300 per year, you can provide a delivery of rice, beans, milk, oil and other necessities to help stretch the family grocery budget for the month.

In addition to the food, you are engaging in a partnership of faith, hope and prayer by establishing a personal relationship where occasional letters and photos can be exchanged. After registration, you will receive a biography and photos of your sponsored family. A minimum commitment of one year is requested.

Our Peruvian friends are forever thankful for your support. They pray for their "Padrinos" or Godparents, as sponsors are lovingly called.

God bless you for participating in this twinning ministry!
