Name of Committee: Worship Committee

Date of Meeting: March 5, 2018

Members Present: Diane Scott, Gerry Offenbacher, Camille Wildes, Dave Sanders, Mary Lopez, Lee Crooks, Matt Fricker, Jack Brockschlager, Katie Vitalbo, Demy Anfang, Cathi Raspanti, Pat Butler and Doug Wildes (as liaison from Pastoral Council). Absent Committee members: Kay Freeman, Cari Schneider.

Topics/Issues/Projects/Strategic Initiatives Discussed.

A. Faith Sharing

The meeting began with Faith sharing led by Worship Committee Chair, Diane Scott. Great stories and insights were offered.

B. CLN Calendar, Review Minutes, any Roster Changes

The next CLN meeting and Worship Committee meeting will be Apr. 23, 2018; June 4, 2018. Pat Butler asked that committee members contact her if they have new email addresses or new phone numbers.

C. Pastoral Council Report

Doug Wildes indicated that there was no Pastoral Council meeting in January so there was no report to present.

D. Environment/Day of Reflection

Katie Vitalbo spoke about what Angela needs. She indicated the church environment would be the same as last year for Holy Week and Easter except for the narthex. Angela has individuals on the Environment Committee to do the visual preparation for each day. Saturday they expect to be done with environment updates by noon to be done before the blessing of food. They have enough volunteers for Holy Week except that they could use some volunteers to vacuum on Saturday morning. They are good on budget—the lighting is so good in the narthex that the plants are living longer which decreases the expense. The storage in the narthex is different. For Palm Sunday they can use help setting yep chairs in the cafeteria.

Katie also reported that the Environment Committee's Day of reflection will be April 21 from 9AM to noon. The event will have a spiritual development theme of "Service". Angela will speak; there will be a snack, and then a creative project—working on table coverings for the welcome tables. There are 29 committee members but Angela expects approximately 10 will attend. They may invite parishioners who may be interested in joining the Environment Committee.

E. Eucharistic Ministry Position #7

One Eucharistic bread minister position was eliminated from the area near the choir. Mary Lopez indicated the flow appears to depend on the will of the people. When the choir is there, they often start a 2nd line which can create some flow problems as others go into that line too. The suggestion was made that perhaps the hospitality minister at that location could help direct and that the choir should cut into the one line.

F. Music Ministry and Piano

Dave Sanders has talked with 3 rebuilders. He did not get fully developed quotes but some rough estimates. There is concern that a full refurbishment of the presentation hall piano would exceed the piano's value. It may make more sense to replace that one. For the piano in church, several options were discussed from a "staged approach" to more extensive refurbishment. Worship Committee is on the Pastoral Council's April agenda to present a proposal that identifies the need with the intent to get support to start the budget request process.

G. AED Training

Lee Crooks reported that Denise Carroll at the City of Brookfield Police Department indicated that they no longer provide AED training to the public. He checked with the Fire Dept. and they do not provide it either. He also consulted with Dr. Greg Van Winkle. The batteries are dead and the pad has expired. The unit is automated and when functional will "talk with you" walking the user through the operation process. They will get the batteries and pads replaced. There is Good Samaritan protection in place that protects the user and the institution. Regarding training, Katie knows a fire fighter who she thinks would be willing to provide training. Diane suggested the Red Cross as another possible resource. Perhaps hospitality ministers could be trained on a volunteer basis and the training could be opened up to any interested parishioners. The issue of seeking out an ongoing service to do periodic inspections of the AED was also brought up.

H. Children's Missal/Whispers in the Pew

Camille Wildes spoke with Father Ken. He is on board with the children's missal bags as long as the books have the imprimatur. Also, they cannot be stored in the narthex. Issue of who to hand out and collect was discussed. The hospitality ministers cannot take on one more thing. It was thought that the book bags could be stored and brought out for Mass. After 2-3 times families with young children would learn where they can pick them up. Camille brought several samples of what the card enclosure might look like that gives the parents suggestions related to how to best celebrate Mass with young children. The cost for 50 bags with 4 books each would cost less than $1500 and Camille felt the cost was manageable. Fifty bags were thought to be a good start.

I. Nomination Reminder

Diane reminded us that nomination Sunday is in two weeks and that we should all think of parishioners to nominate as we will have 2 Worship Committee positions to fill replacing Cari and Demi.

J. Strategic Plan Updates

Diane distributed a Family Mass proposal prepared by Kay Freeman. It would target young families. They would like to add that to the Strategic Plan for next year. Also they would like to add something about a Ministry Day involving various ministries on the day in January 2019 when SJV will be hosting an archdiocese event. There will be a concert the Friday night before the Saturday event. Many of us should expect to be involved.

K. End meeting with Prayer and Sign of Peace

Gerry Offenbacher offered a prayer as the meeting closed.
